- 10:00 a.m. Using “Moving Pictures” to Persuade Terrace Room
Doug Passon, Assistant Federal Public Defender, Phoenix, Arizona

At sentencing, a picture is worth at least a thousand words, and will often add layers of credibility and emotion to your client’s mitigation story. Moving pictures help the judge connect with and understand your client. This session will discuss how to incorporate powerful and persuasive images into your sentencing practice, ranging from inclusion of still photos in sentencing memoranda to the creation of mini-documentary films.

11:00 a.m. Working With Probation Terrace Room

Doug Burris, Chief U.S. Probation Officer, St. Louis, Missouri
Jan Good, Assistant Federal Public Defender, St. Louis, Missouri

The probation officer plays a critical role at sentencing which often influences the judge's opinion. This session will discuss how to work with the probation officer in order to persuade them to adopt (or not oppose) your theory of sentencing.
