

Federal Public Defender
Middle District of Florida

Position Title: INVESTIGATOR #2018-008

Duty Station: Tampa, Florida

Grade / Salary Range: Starting salary will be commensurate with the experience and qualifications of the applicant.

Qualifications: Applicants must have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and the ability to write clearly and present complex and interrelated concepts and ideas. A candidate with an advanced or graduate degree in social work or experience in the mental health field is strongly preferred. A candidate with a degree in or related to a field such as education, human development, psychology, sociology, or criminal justice is preferred. Applicants must possess experience in investigative and mitigation techniques and skills, including the investigation and development of defense mitigation presentations in capital trials or post-conviction cases. Knowledge of federal and state court systems and familiarity with federal habeas corpus or other post-conviction litigation in criminal litigation would be an asset. All candidates must be proficient with the use of a computer, with an emphasis in Word and other Windows-based applications, internet research and familiarity with Case Map or other organizational software programs is a plus. The ability to review, organize and summarize voluminous documents is critical.

The successful candidate will have a commitment to providing quality representation to indigent defendants and have a reputation for integrity. This position requires developing long-term relationships with clients and client families so interpersonal skills are necessary. Successful applicants will be able to prioritize projects and work both independently and cooperatively with attorneys, investigators, and office staff as an essential member of the capital defense team at all stages of representation, from pre-trial proceedings through clemency. This position may require work on holidays, evenings, and weekends, as the nature of the cases require. Frequent and extended travel may also be required. Spanish-language fluency are preferred for this position. Applicants must possess a valid driver's license, insurance and own/operate a personal vehicle for business purposes.

This position has potential movement to Capital Habeas Unit representation in the future.

Deadline to submit an application is FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 2018, 5:00 p.m. E.S.T.
