

Public Notice: Regarding the Availability of Public Access Line to Listen to Courts Proceedings

Friday, May 20, 2022

The public access line is generally used for court proceedings in which the lawyers and their clients are participating remotely using video and/or teleconferencing technology and are not physically present in the courtroom. For in-person court proceedings, the presiding judge may, but is not required to, make the public access line available.