

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC REGARDING ACCESS TO CLERK'S OFFICE

The Eighth Circuit remains open for business.

CM/ECF is fully functional and should be used for filing documents with the court. If you are a pro se filer, you can file by fax (314-244-2780) or by mail.

Please note, the Eagleton Court House has posted restrictions on entrance to the Court House. These can be found on our website. Additionally, the public is not being admitted to the Eighth Circuit Clerk's Office at the present time. If you come to the Burger or Eagleton courthouses to file, you may leave your documents at the front door to the office. There will be a file stamp for you to make a filed-stamped copy of your pleading. Documents are retrieved regularly throughout the day and will be filed as of the date received. Documents left after 5:00 p.m. will be filed on the next business day.

If you have any questions or need assistance, please call 314-244-2400. Clerk's Office staff members are present at both Clerk's Offices and can answer your questions and provide other assistance. The St. Paul Clerk's Office number is 612-848-1300.

The court is carefully monitoring the situation, including advice from the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, the CDC, and local health officials. As the situation changes, new information will be posted on the website at www.ca8.uscourts.gov
