

Update Regarding National Emergency

Effective July 6, 2020, the court is reinstating the requirement of paper briefs, and the filing of these paper copies is no longer deferred.

Paper copies of briefs that were filed electronically prior to July 6, 2020, are now due on or before July 31, 2020. Because of the large volume of deferred paper copies, the court will not, absent extraordinary circumstances, entertain any motions to extend this July 31 filing deadline. Counsel are strongly encouraged to file the copies as early as possible, so as to avoid a potential backlog of paper filings in the Clerk's Office.

Paper copies of briefs filed electronically on or after July 6, 2020, are due as set forth in the notice of docket activity issued by the Clerk's Office in conjunction with the review and filing of the electronic brief. See 8th Cir. R. 28A(d).

In the interest of staff and public safety, the St. Louis and St. Paul Clerk's Offices remain closed to the public, and paper copies may not be hand-delivered to either office. All briefs should be mailed or otherwise transmitted to the St. Louis Clerk's Office at the address shown below.

Questions or concerns should be addressed to the St. Louis Clerk's Office at (314)-244-2400.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Clerk of Court
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit
