UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MCALLEN DIVISION

Nathan Ochsner, Clerk of Court

By Deputy Clerk

IN RE: COURT OPERATIONS IN THE MCALLEN DIVISION
UNDER THE EXIGENT
CIRCUMSTANCES CREATED
BY THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

SPECIAL ORDER M-2021-7

SPECIAL ORDER

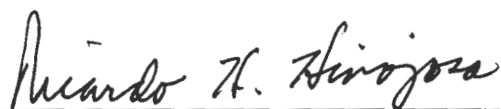

This Order applies in the McAllen Division of the Southern District of Texas and supplements Special Order M-2021-4. The Court enters the following:

1. Jury trials (criminal and civil) scheduled to begin from this date through October 31, 2021, are continued to a date to be reset by each presiding judge, with the limited exception of those referenced in paragraph 5. Those continuances do not affect any deadlines other than the jury trial dates. Attorneys should contact the presiding judges in their cases if they want to modify other deadlines.
2. Due to the Court's reduced ability to obtain an adequate spectrum of jurors and due to the reduced availability of attorneys and court staff to be present in courtrooms because of the public-health risks associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, the periods of the continuances implemented by this order are excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C § 3161 (h)(7)(A). The Court finds that the ends of justice served by ordering these continuances outweigh the interest of the public and of each defendant in a speedy trial. Indeed, the best interests of the public are served by these continuances.
3. Individual judges may continue to hold bench trials, in-person hearings, sentencing proceedings, scheduling conferences, and other court proceedings. Counsel may seek relief by appropriate requests or motions. The use of telephone or video conferencing in these proceedings is encouraged when feasible, deemed appropriate by the presiding judge, and permitted by legal and technology constraints.

4. This Order does not impact any judge's continuing discretion to consider and decide particular matters on the pleadings alone. This Order is intended to give each judge discretion to handle his or her docket on a case-by-case basis, aside from the general continuance of jury trials ordered above.
5. At the discretion of the presiding judge, jury trials may be conducted where adequate health and safety measures can be implemented to accommodate same. The Court will use a phased-in approach to resume jury trials that recognizes the need to protect the health and safety of all participants and to minimize the risk of COVID-19 exposure.
6. Magistrate judges will continue to preside over criminal and civil matters, other than jury trials, including initial appearances, arraignments, detention hearings, the issuance of warrants, and referred civil matters.
7. Any judge may limit the number of individuals present in a courtroom, as circumstances warrant.
8. This Order does not apply to Bankruptcy Court proceedings. Separate Bankruptcy Court Orders address those proceedings.
9. Unless extended, this Order remains in effect through October 31, 2021. It will expire on October 31, 2021, absent further order or action.

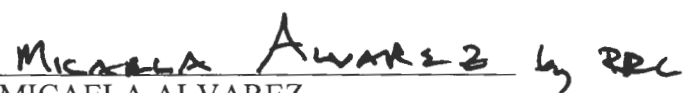

Signed this 1st day of October, 2021.
