THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

THIRD AMENDED PROTOCOL FOR IN-PERSON
PROCEEDINGS AND TRIALS DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Effective April 4, 2022

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

THIRD AMENDED PROTOCOL FOR IN-PERSON HEARINGS AND TRIALS¹

On March 7, 2022, and due to the continued decrease in COVID's positivity rate in Puerto Rico, Executive Order No. 2022-019 (EO 22-019) was issued by the Governor of Puerto Rico, adopting the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) latest guidelines, and easing most COVID-19 related restrictions, including the lifting of mask mandate requirements. EO 22-019 left to each employer, public or private, the discretion and decision making to implement the COVID-19 safety measures deemed appropriate for its operation.

After a thorough review of the EO 22-019 and local and federal agencies' recommendations, the following guidelines are issued for in-person proceedings and trials to be held in the District of Puerto Rico. These guidelines also consider the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) and the US Marshal Service (USMS) Protocols. These new guidelines shall become effective on April 4, 2022.

The following document outlines the general approach for conducting in-person proceedings in our District. As we transition into re-opening the Court with unlimited number of in-person proceedings, this document will serve to provide all participants with an understanding of our new guidelines and protocols, as well as the precautions being taken district-wide to protect jurors, attorneys, court staff and members of the public.
