

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT
COVID-19 UPDATE
(As of 2/23/2022)

This is an update on the continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on Court operations for the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit:

Oral Arguments

In-person arguments will be permitted as of March 1, 2022. Attorneys will retain the option at this time to appear remotely by video without a motion.

Please review the in-person hearing protocols and Amended Vaccination Order here. Panels will continue to exercise their discretion under the rules to submit cases without argument; to hold hearings remotely; or to postpone argument to a later date. When in-person or remote argument is held, it will be live streamed to facilitate public access.

Access to the Courthouses

Until further notice, our courthouses remain closed to the general public. When in person hearings resume in March 2022, only those attorneys and parties who are scheduled to appear for oral argument or other court meeting or event, and who provide advance proof of their vaccination status will be permitted in the courthouses. Attorneys and parties who have access to CM/ECF or ACMS are strongly encouraged to use it for everything, including new petitions for review and original proceedings. If unrepresented litigants have access to email, they are encouraged to submit their filings, including petitions for review and all other pleadings, as PDF attachments, directly to the Court at this email address: prose_pleadings@ca9.uscourts.gov. We also have a drop box in the lobby of the Browning Courthouse at 95 Seventh Street, San Francisco, CA 94103, and the Court continues to receive filings sent via U.S. Mail or commercial delivery services.

Court Hours & Staffing

Because we continue to have limited staff available in the courthouses to answer phone calls, we continue to accept and encourage that queries be sent by email to: questions@ca9.uscourts.gov. We will do our best to prioritize incoming filings and questions, but there might be some delay in responding.

Emergency Applications

A lawyer or litigant who seeks an emergency stay or relief that requires immediate attention should file a request per the instructions set out in the rules, by contacting the court at emergency@ca9.uscourts.gov or (415) 355-8020.

Further Updates

Further updates will be posted on the Court's website as the situation warrants.
