FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

FILED

DEC 01 2022

Mark C. McCartt, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

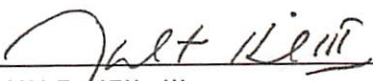

IN THE MATTER OF
LOCAL RULE LCrR16-2
EXPERT WITNESS DISCLOSURES

GENERAL ORDER 22-25

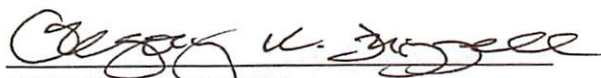

In conjunction with the amendments to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure effective December 1, 2022, the court adopts by this General Order a new local rule LCrR16-2 as stated below:

Expert-Witness Disclosures. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, expert-witness disclosures that must be made under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G) or (b)(1)(C) shall be made at least fifteen days before the pretrial conference. The party requesting expert-witness disclosures shall make timely requests for expert-witness disclosures to facilitate the opposing party's compliance with the applicable disclosure deadline. Disclosures in response to requests made fewer than twenty-one days before the pretrial conference shall be made within six days of the request.

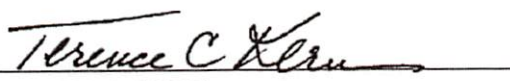

IT IS SO ORDERED this 1st day of December, 2022.
