Session 4 – What Did I Get and How Did I Get It? A Field Guide to eDiscovery

- a. Date: November 19, 2025, at 1:00-2:15 PM, EST
- b. Duration: 75 minutes
- c. Title: What Did I Get and How Did I Get It? A Field Guide to eDiscovery.
- d. Description:

Whether it is photos, videos, emails, or cell location data, we get all types of eDiscovery which are not just in PDF format. This session will help you identify what are the digital evidence formats you have received from the government and how best to select the right tools for searching and reviewing the data once, you have identified the discovery configuration. Learn time-saving techniques to let you make eDiscovery easier for you, and the rest of your defense team, to review.
- e. Materials: Written handout materials will be available for participants.
- f. CLE: N/A

g. Presenter:

Carl Adams joined the National Litigation Support Team (NLST) in January 2022. Previously, he was the Litigation Support Specialist for the Office of the Federal Public Defender for the District of Iowa for three years. At the federal defender's office, Carl assisted with discovery management, digital forensics (including Cellebrite extractions), audio and video editing and exhibit creation. Carl enjoys trying to solve problems using inexpensive and open-source tools. Before joining the federal defenders, Carl was a law clerk for state and federal judges and worked briefly in bankruptcy and state criminal law.
