Can You Rebook a Chase Travel Flight?

Yes — Chase Travel Air Lines allows passengers to rebook flights in most circumstances. Step-by-Step: How to Rebook a Chase Travel Flight

The steps below outline the general rebooking process. For any step where you run into complications, a Chase Travel rebooking agent is available by phone to take over and handle the change directly.

Step 1 — Locate Your Booking Confirmation

Find your Chase Travel confirmation number (Record Locator) — a 6-character alphanumeric code in your original booking email and e-ticket. You will need this to access your reservation for any rebooking request.

Q Can't find your confirmation? Call 1-888-620-1759 — an agent can locate your booking using your name and travel details.

Step 2 — Identify Your Preferred New Flight

Check Chase Travel's schedule for available flights on your new preferred date and route. Note the flight numbers, departure times, and available fare classes before initiating any change.

Q Not sure which flight fits? Call 1-888-620-1759 — a booking specialist can search all available Chase Travel options.

Step 3 — Understand Change Fees and Fare Differences

Depending on your ticket type, rebooking may involve a fare difference if the new flight is priced higher. Basic Economy tickets are most restricted. Flexible fares and Medallion members may have more favorable terms.

Q Before committing, call 1-888-620-1759. An agent will tell you exactly what costs apply to your specific fare — no surprises.

Step 4 — Initiate the Rebooking

Online tools handle some straightforward changes, but complex itineraries, multi-leg bookings, disruption-related rebookings, and certain fare types are better handled by a Chase Travel agent with direct access to your reservation.

Q For the most reliable rebooking, call 1-888-620-4018 and speak directly with a Chase Travel specialist — available to process your change now.

Step 5 — Confirm Your New Booking

After rebooking, verify your passenger name, new flight number, departure date and time, and seat assignment are all correct before ending the transaction.

Q If any detail is wrong or your confirmation doesn't arrive, call 1-888-620-4018 immediately — an agent can correct your reservation on the spot.
